

CIDADE DE PEDRA

Antoine d'Agata

"Cidade de Pedra" by Antoine d'Agata.

"Cidade de Pedra" by Antoine d'Agata.

57 Unbound Folds

228 Pages

169 Photos

142 Unseen Images

ect. état com...
penser. inventer
nmobiles. aucun
e qui renoue avec nstant.

ute pensée qui ne
algré l'épuisement.
e monde dans sa
jour plus difficile.
aire, primitive. l'in-
e de la parole. penser
elle qui nous soulève.

force irré-

I let me lie to myself. I
I hate you. And I hate myself for loving you. I TUCK my self to fuck you. I broke up my mirror. I'm just a clown walking the streets I always walked.

From: sc@gmail.com - To: aa@hotmail.com - Re: - Date: Thu, 9 Oct 2008 22:06:11 - I cry inside myself, not understanding why we had to kill such a beautiful feeling. It was so comforting. I was used to opening my eyes and you were there. It's not a hazard we met. Life needed us to hold on emptiness. Why suffer more? Life is hard. We could, at least, keep ourselves warm inside.
You left fragments of images behind you. I miss you every hour.

Re:

the same time. I te
close to my life aga

From: sc@gmail.c
Date: Thu, 23 Oc
me?

From: sc@gmail.
Date: Fri, 24 Oct
do is to speak, to my heart. Such a Life turns cold w all lost after a wh
You knew how I

From 2005 to 2009 Antoine d'Agata had spent most of his time in Cracolândia, the crack neighborhoods of São Paulo and Salvador. Doubtless the roughest areas of Brazil.

With 169 images and more than 140 unseen photographs, "Cidade de Pedra" is the most comprehensive document about this period. It reveals the brutality and the intimacy of his experience.

"An unfinished diary of fragile and innocent interactions" in his own words.

16 x 22cm
228 Pages
951g

Hard Cardboard (Kraft) box

56 Full color Offset unbound folds
+ 1 Black and White fold with text in 3 languages - French, Portuguese and English

ISBN 978-85-93212-00-0

Published by Void

Launched at Paris Photo,
Nov. 2016

2016 "Cidade de Pedra"

© Antoine d'Agata

2016 "Cidade de Pedra"

© Antoine d'Agata

2016 "Cidade de Pedra"

© Antoine d'Agata

2016 "Cidade de Pedra"

© Antoine d'Agata

2016 "Cidade de Pedra"

W O I D

talkto@void.photo